

```
- lequests.get(url)
                                                                                                                                                                                 Trom the website
                                     # checking response.status_code (if you get 502, try resonance to the second se 3
                                                                         print(f"Status: {response.status_code} - Try renuming the code(m)) 4
                                         else:
                                                                            print(f"Status: {response.status_code \n")
                                          # using BeautifulSoup to parse the response object
.6
                                           SOUP = BeautifulSoup(response.content, "html.parser")
.7
                                            inages = soup.find_all("img", attrs={"alt": "post imm")
                                           # Fireling Post images in the soup
L8
19
20
                                            # down Loading images
21
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     22
```

